

The Defendant filed a Motion to Reconsider, Motion to Appeal Order and Grievance of the Court (collectively treated as his second Motion to Reconsider). In his Motion, as he had done at the trial, the Defendant again made vulgar and disparaging comments about the Plaintiff and disparaging comments about Plaintiff's counsel.

In response, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Sanctions pursuant to Virginia Code § 8.01-271.1. In turn, the Defendant filed his own Motion for Sanctions.

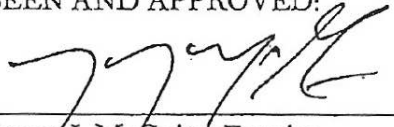

On June 13, 2019, the Court granted Plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions and entered the Final Order of Divorce. The Defendant's Motion to Reconsider and Motion for Sanctions were denied.

The Defendant noted his Appeal.

Defendant's Objection is noted. CAE

SEEN AND APPROVED:

SEEN AND _____:

James J. McGuire, Esquire
[VSB No. 36239]
BUCHBAUER & McGUIRE, P.C.
110 North Braddock Street
Winchester, Virginia 22601
540-722-2300 - Telephone
540-722-3174 - Facsimile
jmcguire@buchbauermcguire.com
Counsel for Plaintiff

_____
Michael L. Sweet
Winchester, VA 22601
me@lennysweet.com
Pro Se Defendant

ENTERED this 20th day of August, 2019.

Clark A. Ritchie, Circuit Court Judge

Pursuant to Rule 5A:8(d), I specifically note that my Letter Opinions dated April 19, 2019 and May 6, 2019 referenced by the Plaintiff be incorporated into the written facts herein. Additionally, they should act as corrections to the Defendant's proposed written facts which I decline to endorse. CAE